

By Mike Clark

Read the article Reggae Across the Americas on Page 67 to help you solve these clues. Answers on page 90.

DOWN

- 1. The Central American group Soul Vibration (Reggae del Coco) comes out of Bluefields, _____.
- 4. Venezuelan conscious roots band. (2 words)
- 5. Female Nyabinghi/roots artist from Argentina, sometimes likened to Dezarie.
- 6. Puerto Rican reggaeton artist _____ has a somewhat laid-back style. (2 words)
- 7. _____ EMANUEL. Panamanian roots artist (Persistence of Vision) working in California.
- 8. DR _____. This master producer worked with Los Cafres from Argentina in 1994 and Gondwana from Chile in 2000.

- 10. RADIO _____. Argentine roots group with hot first CD and second on the way.
- 12. Zion the Promise Land and Negus Nagast come from _____, along with the One Love Reggae Fest.
- 14. Reggae super group with a string of #1 mainstream reggae hits in Chile.
- 15. Normally peaceful Central American republic where ital Rastas were subject to human rights violation by police and press. (2 words)
- 18. Island home to such reggae groups as Cultura Profetica, Gomba Jahbari, Filosofia, Bayanga. (2 words)
- 19. _____ DANCE. The "perreo" reggaeton dance that parents and politicians howl about!

ACROSS

- 2. The Mother of All Nations, according to many Latin Americans.
- 3. Mexican reggae group with four CDs, including Live from Chiapas (En Vivo en Chiapas).

- 9. Panamanian artist who first fused reggae en Español and rap. (2 words)
- 11. Central American home to Anastasio y los Del Monte. (2 words)
- 13. Reggaeton cut by Daddy Yankee that has hit #1 across the Americas.
- 16. Dance craze that has stormed out of Puerto Rico and rages from Miami to Argentina.
- 17. Brazilian roots group whose name almost everybody recognizes. (2 words)
- 20. Me Can Tell You, Costa Rican group with roots in Limon on the Atlantic Coast, which explores cumbia reggae.
- 21. This Costa Rican group sings with conscious political lyrics in both English and Spanish.
- 22. Female reggaeton artist from Puerto Rico who recently toured California to full houses. (2 words)
- 23. Happy and high, mellow mood you get from reggae roots music. ♡