About 20 years ago, Diane Issachar started answering the phones for Roger Steffens, Hank Holmes and Chuck Foster's Reggae Beat on KCRW. She also worked on some of the big shows, but it was when she started to take photos at the shows that she found her passion. After moving to Florida, she connected with Rhythm Vibes magazine and is still involved. Her next project is a book in remembrance of Clive Oliver, former editor of Rhythm Vibes. DIANEISSA@aol.com
